COPYRIGHT STATEMENT

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials including foreign works under certain conditions. In addition, the United States extends protection to foreign works by means of various international conventions, bilateral agreements, and proclamations.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

The Columbia University Libraries reserve the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

LETTER OF SUBMITTAL.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE,
BUREAU OF FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC COMMERCE,
Washington, May 29, 1919.

SIR: Submitted herewith is a trade directory of the State of South Australia, compiled by Henry P. Starrett, American consul at Adelaide, and designed to meet the requirements of American manufacturers and dealers who desire to make business connections in that market. Consul Starrett, in transmitting the directory, says that only the more important firms in each line are listed and that the names have been carefully checked and rechecked.

Similar compilations have been requested from other consuls in Australasia and the Far East, and when received will be issued promptly in separate pamphlets.

Respectfully,

B. S. CUTLER,
Director.

To Hon. WILLIAM C. REDFIELD,
Secretary of Commerce.
